

Character: Mrs. Maylie

Mrs Maylie was a kind-hearted and wealthy older woman with sincere manners. She had a seventeen-year-old niece named Rose, who was quite beautiful, and her gentle charm won all hearts. Mrs Maylie was, despite her age, very dignified and stately. She seemed to like saving children who might otherwise be prone to crime. It was kind of weird that Mrs Maylie kept adopting children who turned out to be from the same family- like Rose, who was the younger sister of Oliver's dead mother. She cared deeply for Oliver and Rose and, of course, her son. But she was also very rational and did everything that needed to be done.

Mrs Maylie took over the role of Oliver's dead mother. She let Oliver stay at her house and took care of him. Oliver found great affection and stability there. However, Mrs Maylie loved both Oliver and Rose and, of course, her son Harry. Later in the story, it turned out that she was Oliver's maternal aunt.

A memorial moment

Nina: Rose married Harry and they live together with Mrs. Maylie in a nice village.
Vivienne: Mrs. Maylie lived with Harry and Rose together next to the church in a peaceful village. She spent the rest of here days in quiet contentment.