

Character: Oliver Twist

Oliver Twist, an orphan since birth, was born in a workhouse in a small town about 70 miles from London, England. He is the main character in this novel.

Oliver spent the first nine years of his life in a poorly run home for young orphans and then transferred to a workhouse for adults. One day Oliver got taken up by a local undertaker. After a fight, Oliver ran away and travelled towards London. There he met the Artful Dodger who took Oliver to Fagin's house. After some time there, Oliver also got sent to pick pockets. He got caught, but Mr Brownlow helped him and took him to his house. Sadly, Fagin stole Oliver back, and he had to assist in a burglary where he got shot. Two ladies found him, and he lived a good life in the countryside.

One day Oliver got to know many things about his family, for example, that Monks was his half-brother. Finally, he got adopted by Mr Brownlow.

Meret/Jonas

One memorable moment for me was...

Meret: when Oliver went to Fagin's house with the artful Dodger.

